A special thank-you to the Giving Tree's savvy shoppers: Betty Orcutt, Jill Haynes, Sheri Neu, Mary McConnell and our online shopper, Joyce Swackhammer. These shoppers turned generous donations from the parish into "just-right" gifts.

The Giving Tree's sorters, Robin Kelley, Sheri Neu, Annie Wheeler, and Jim Gallagher, kept us organized when each new group of presents arrived. Lastly, a shout-out to Annie, Gavin, and Nick Wheeler who organized an assembly line to take the sorted gifts from the Church basement up to the parking lot and packed two SUVs FULL of gifts to be distributed.

"Love One Another" – This commandment surely was in the hearts of our St. John Vianney parishioners when they thought of this year's Giving Tree. Through your generosity, we were able to serve 17 families with a total of 44 children, ranging in age from infants to teenagers. A total of 165 presents were supplied, ranging from the basic necessities of underwear and socks to boots and outerwear and all of the layers in between. More than half of our families are without reliable transportation, making it even more difficult to provide extras at Christmas time. Parents were so appreciative and overwhelmed by your generosity and thoughtfulness in helping them to provide a Christmas for their children.

Anointing of the Sick/Prayers for Healing

Our next anointing will be on Saturday, February 22nd and Sunday, February 23rd after each Mass.
