Heavenly Father, heal the sick, comfort the sorrowing, encourage the discouraged and give us strength.

The St. Mary's Sunday Supper team served four homemade soups, tossed salad, macaroni salad (from a Centenary United Methodist Church bereavement luncheon), crusty bread, and brownies with ice cream to twelve guests who braved the cold and rain to join us on December 8th at the First Presbyterian Church.

We hope that the hot soups and our hospitality warmed them. Many thanks to those who continue to spread the news of this important weekly event. Our team will next prepare and serve the luncheon on February 2nd. Should Punxsutawney Phil be concerned?

The red Sanctuary Lamp, continuously aglow above or near the tabernacle, indicates the presence of Christ, the Blessed Sacrament. If you wish to have the Sanctuary Lamp lit in memory of a loved one, please contact the parish office. In addition, if you would like to sponsor the Altar Breads, Altar Wine or Altar Candles for a given month in memory of a loved one, please contact the parish office.
